Case No. 1:23-cv-04731

JOINT STATUS REPORT ON UNDERLYING CIVIL AND CRIMINAL CASES

On May 30, 2024, upon receipt of the Joint Status Report, the Court set a status conference in the above-captioned case for September 17, 2024. Dkt. 65. The Court also directed the parties to file a status report on September 10, 2024. Id. In support thereof, certain of the parties,¹ through their undersigned counsel, state the following:

I. Status of Underlying Civil and Criminal Cases

In the above-captioned action, Plaintiff Travco Insurance Company (“Travco”) seeks a declaration that it does not owe a defense to, and is not required to indemnify, Defendants Robert Crimo, Jr. (“Crimo, Jr.”) and Robert Crimo, III (“Crimo, III”) under a policy of insurance issued to Crimo, Jr. bearing policy number 607044640 633 1 for the policy period of June 24, 2022 to June 24, 2023 (the “Travco Policy”) for numerous lawsuits filed against Crimo Jr. and Crimo, III related to the July 4, 2022 mass shooting that occurred in Highland Park, Illinois (the “July 4th Mass Shooting”). There are two categories of lawsuits being brought against Crimo, Jr. and Crimo, III related to the July 4th Mass Shooting: (1) criminal cases brought against Crimo, Jr. and Crimo, III; and (2) civil actions filed in September 2022 by victims of the July 4th Mass Shooting.

Criminal Cases: The criminal case against Crimo, III remains ongoing. His trial date is reportedly set for February 25, 2025.² He is being held in Lake County Jail.

As stated in the Joint Status Report filed on May 21, 2024, Crimo Jr. reportedly completed a sentence for misdemeanor counts of reckless conduct in December 2023. Dkt. 64.

¹ Neither Defendant Robert Crimo, Jr. nor Defendant Robert Crimo, III has appeared or answered in this action as of the filing of this Joint Status Report.

² Eric Levenson, Robert Crimo III, accused in July 4th parade mass shooting, backs out of plea deal in court hearing, CNN (June 26, 2024), <https://www.cnn.com/2024/06/26/us/robert-crimo-july-fourth-shooting-plea/index.htm>.

Civil Actions: Since the parties last filed a Joint Status Report, the twelve civil actions brought by the Shooting Victim Defendants³ related to the July 4th Mass Shooting against multiple defendants—including Crimo, Jr. and Crimo, III—were remanded to the Circuit Court of Lake County, Illinois. An additional thirteen cases related to the July 4th Mass Shooting brought by other plaintiffs were filed in the Circuit Court of Lake County, Illinois prior to July 4, 2024. On August 13, 2024, the twenty-five cases were consolidated before Judge Jorge Ortiz for the purposes of pre-trial scheduling, discovery and motion practice.

On September 4, 2023, counsel for Crimo, Jr. filed a motion to dismiss in the civil actions, relying solely on the argument that the claims brought against him were included within an order of discharge issued by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois. As of the filing of this Joint Status Report, counsel for Crimo, Jr. has not presented the motion before Judge Ortiz, and therefore a briefing schedule has not yet been set. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shooting Victim Defendants plan to oppose this motion because the discharge order does not preclude the Shooting Victim Defendants from maintaining their claims against Crimo, Jr. in order to ascertain his liability and, if liability is found with respect to their claims, collecting on any relevant insurance policies, including the one issued by Travco. See Exhibit A at 2 (“In addition, this discharge does not stop creditors from collecting from anyone who is also liable on the debt, such as an insurance company...”).

³ The Shooting Victim Defendants are Keely Roberts, Jason Roberts, Lorena Rebollar Sedano, Ricardo Toledo, Petra Toledo, Josefina Toledo, Alejo Toledo, Amelia Tenorio, Antonia Melgar, Bruce Sundheim, Peter Straus, Jonathan Straus, Sylvia Vergara, Lizet Montez, Gabriela Vergara, Lauren Bennett, Michael Bennett, Terrie Bennett, Jeffrey Bennett, Deborah Samuels, Elliot Samuels, Mirna Rodriguez, Oscar Sanchez, Michael Zeifert, Christine Zeifert, Elizabeth Turnipseed and Joshua Chupack.

As of the filing of this Joint Status Report, Crimo, III has not appeared in the civil actions. The deadline for the Smith & Wesson defendants, Budsgunshop.com LLC, and Red Dot Arms, Inc. to file responsive pleadings to the operative complaints in the civil actions is September 16, 2024. The next status conference in the civil actions is scheduled on September 17, 2024.

II. Proposed Next Steps

Travco does not assert any claims against the Shooting Victim Defendants because they were not parties to the Travco Policy. The Shooting Victim Defendants have been named in this action solely as necessary and indispensable parties due to their civil actions that name Crimo, Jr. and Crimo, III as defendants.

As to Crimo, Jr. and Crimo, III, Travco plans to move for entry of a default judgment finding that Travco owes no duty to defend or indemnify Crimo, Jr. and Crimo, III for the underlying civil actions primarily on the bases that the claims asserted against Crimo, Jr. and Crimo, III: (1) do not allege “bodily injury” caused by an “occurrence” as those terms are defined in the Travco Policy; and (2) the claims asserted in the underlying cases fall within the scope of the Travco Policy’s “expected or intended injury” exclusion. Travco anticipates that this Court will be in position to enter such a judgment following resolution of the underlying Crimo, III criminal trial. Travco further anticipates seeking leave to file an Amended Complaint to add as necessary party defendants the plaintiffs in the thirteen newly filed underlying cases referenced above.

The Shooting Victim Defendants anticipate opposing any motion that would seek to decide the applicability of the Travco Policy, since any such decision could impact their ability to access the Travco Policy should liability be found against either Crimo, Jr. or Crimo, III in the civil actions. The Shooting Victim Defendants reserve all rights to raise any legal or factual issues or arguments in connection with any such motion.

Due to the scheduling of a status conference in the civil actions on September 17, 2024, the parties request that the Court continue the hearing set for the same day in this matter until September 24, 2024.

Order of Discharge

IT IS ORDERED: A discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 727 is granted to:

Robert E. Crimo Jr.

January 30, 2024For the court: Jeffrey P. Allsteadt, Clerk
United States Bankruptcy CourtExplanation of Bankruptcy Discharge in a Chapter 7 Case

This order does not close or dismiss the case, and it does not determine how much money, if any, the trustee will pay creditors.

Creditors cannot collect discharged debts

This order means that no one may make any attempt to collect a discharged debt from the debtors personally. For example, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors personally on discharged debts. Creditors cannot contact the debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise in any attempt to collect the debt personally. Creditors who violate this order can be required to pay debtors damages and attorney's fees.

However, a creditor with a lien may enforce a claim against the debtors' property subject to that lien unless the lien was avoided or eliminated. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

This order does not prevent debtors from paying any debt voluntarily or from paying reaffirmed debts according to the reaffirmation agreement. 11 U.S.C. § 524(c), (f).

Most debts are discharged

Most debts are covered by the discharge, but not all. Generally, a discharge removes the debtors' personal liability for debts owed before the debtors' bankruptcy case was filed.

Also, if this case began under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code and was later converted to chapter 7, debts owed before the conversion are discharged.

In a case involving community property: Special rules protect certain community property owned by the debtor's spouse, even if that spouse did not file a bankruptcy case.

For more information, see page 2 >

Some debts are not discharged

Examples of debts that are not discharged are:

- ♦ debts that are domestic support obligations;
- ♦ debts for most student loans;
- ♦ debts for most taxes;
- ♦ debts that the bankruptcy court has decided or will decide are not discharged in this bankruptcy case;
- ♦ debts for most fines, penalties, forfeitures, or criminal restitution obligations;
- ♦ some debts which the debtors did not properly list;
- ♦ debts for certain types of loans owed to pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, or retirement plans; and
- ♦ debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a vehicle while intoxicated.

Also, debts covered by a valid reaffirmation agreement are not discharged.

In addition, this discharge does not stop creditors from collecting from anyone else who is also liable on the debt, such as an insurance company or a person who cosigned or guaranteed a loan.

This information is only a general summary of the bankruptcy discharge; some exceptions exist. Because the law is complicated, you should consult an attorney to determine the exact effect of the discharge in this case.
